

Visiting Nurse Services of Iowa has been a leader in providing quality health care programs in Iowa since 1908. We are a non-profit organization with you every step of the way. Our dedicated staff of over 100 compassionate healthcare professionals is always on call to help you. We make it our mission to join with other community health and social service agencies to deliver excellence in health care and educational services.

VNS of Iowa offers a variety of valuable services to meet the health and social needs of those that depend on us. VNS of Iowa provides lifelong health services by working directly with a diverse group of individuals to provide comprehensive and skilled care. We help people of all ages from day one, by furnishing everything from educational advice on the importance of prenatal care to monitoring the blood sugar levels of a senior adult suffering from diabetes. We care about our community – we are here for you.

DRAKE LEGAL CLINIC:

“The Drake Legal Clinic provides an exceptional learning experience for students, applying their legal education to the representation of clients in a first-class clinical setting. We ensure that our students have an understanding of and respect for the cultural and social differences of others. We instill in our students the highest professional and ethical standards as well as a commitment to ensuring meaningful access to justice for all.”

- ❖ Jerry Foxhoven, Associate Clinical Professor and Director of the Joan and Lyle Middleton Center for Children’s Rights at the Drake University School of Law

THE JOAN AND LYLE MIDDLETON CENTER FOR CHILDREN’S RIGHTS:

The Joan and Lyle Middleton Center for Children’s Rights uses an interdisciplinary approach to provide improved services to children and families in need of assistance. The Center has four components: legal services provided through the Children’s Rights Clinic, interdisciplinary training, resources and policy making. This Community Resource Directory has been prepared to assist all professionals dealing with children’s issues (including the students at the Juvenile Law Clinic at the Drake University Law School) in identifying and utilizing appropriate resources to ensure the best possible outcomes for vulnerable youth.

- ❖ Jerry Foxhoven, Associate Clinical Professor and Director of the Joan and Lyle Middleton Center for Children’s Rights at the Drake University School of Law

The program was originally designed as a re-entry program for men coming out of jail and/or prison, this is still one of the primary components of referrals for us, however over the years we too have worked as a diversion program, primarily in partnership with the 5th Judicial District and Drug Court. The average length of stay in the program is 12 - 18 months. The program consists of an orientation period and 3 treatment Phases.
- Women's Transitional Housing Project: This is a long-term faith-based reentry program for women involved in the criminal justice system as a result of alcohol or drug problems. Their time in the Transitional Housing Project will be determined by their individual plan in accordance with the terms of their release and success in the community.
