Beneficiary Instructions

Be sure to use given names such as "Mary A. Doe," not "Mrs. John Doe." Include the address and relationship of each beneficiary, if applicable. Payment to Minors: A minor child may be designated as a beneficiary. However, if death proceeds become payable while the child is still a minor, Principal Life may require appointment of a conservator for the child before paying the proceeds. You may designate a custodian under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act and permit Principal Life to pay death proceeds to a custodian. To do so, please complete the Group Universal Life Beneficiary with UTMA Custodian form. Please print "SEE ATTACHED" in section C of this form and return the completed form along with the Group Universal Life Beneficiary Designation with UTMA Custodian form. This custodian is under legal duty to use the money for the benefit of the minor child(ren). No court proceedings are needed to designate a custodian.
